What You Get

By signing this Agreement, you are entitled to rent The Leading Hand software for use by your business on one computer at the workshop and one computer at home.

We will provide the programme, support (up to six hours over a twelve month period commencing on the date of this Agreement) and updates for the duration of the Agreement.

Rent is payable monthly in advance commencing from the date of this Agreement. Provided your rent is paid up. You will be sent an unlock code every three months to enable The Leading Hand to continue to operate for the next three months.

Notices

All notices from us to you and vice versa will be by means of e-mail or fax to our respective e-mail and fax addresses stated in this Agreement.

Your Responsibilities

Payment must be received by the beginning of each month, either by a Credit Card (Bankcard, MasterCard, Visa or Amex) or Capricorn account regular debit authority.

You must have a computer and printer that will work with The Leading Hand.

Support

Support is by fax, phone or Internet. Support is for The Leading Hand only. Hardware and other software (e.g. Windows) is not included. Programme updates will usually be supplied over the Internet. To get timely and effective support, we would encourage the user to have access to the Internet.

On-site support is available as a separate chargeable item.

Pricing

We envisage this as a long term agreement and will use our best endeavours to limit rent increases in accordance with movements in the Consumer Price Index but we can not guarantee this. We will give prior notice of any rent variation.

Termination

The user terminates the Agreement when payment is not made in accordance with this Agreement. No further unlock codes will be provided and you will not be able to enter information (e.g. invoices) into the system. You will, however be able to view and print reports. The Leading Hand programme always remains the property of AMPL Software Pty Ltd. The data (customer details etc.) is the property of the user. Once this Agreement has been terminated it is necessary for the user to return the Leading Hand Manuals and CDs to the agent.

This Agreement may be terminated at any time by either the user or supplier.
